Cancellation-Reschedule/Refund Policy

Signing up for a retreat is a mutual time commitment. If you cancel or reschedule 180 days or more prior to your retreat start date, your retreat fees are fully refundable (minus a $150 processing fee).

If you cancel or reschedule 120-179 days prior to your retreat start date, you'll receive a refund for one-half of your fees (minus a $150 processing fee).

As you can imagine, the closer you cancel or reschedule to the start date of your retreat, the harder it is to find someone to take your place. For this reason, if you cancel or reschedule within 120 days of your retreat start date, fees are not refundable. (see Insurance below)

In the unlikely event that a retreat is cancelled by Red Barn Retreats, we'll promptly send you a full refund.

Insurance

Emergencies sometimes come up that require an unexpected change of plans. Illness, injury, loss of job, death in the family, etc. With the right travel insurance, not only will your retreat costs be covered, but you can also recover other nonrefundable trip costs.

Purchasing travel insurance can be done on a person-by-person basis. I ran a sample quote for a 50 year old attending a 3-day retreat ($100), with cancellation and interruption coverage among other benefits, the premium was $30. Rates will vary depending on coverage, age, length of retreat, etc.

More information can be found here - Retreat Insurance Information

Retreat insurance needs to be purchased very soon after booking your retreat.

Payment Methods

Final payment will be made at the conclusion of your retreat. You can pay by check or credit card. An additional 5% will be added to your bill when using a credit card due to credit card processing fees.

Deposit Policy

A credit card will act as the reservation and security deposit for your retreat. No charge will be made on your credit card. If you would rather not use a credit card, you can include a check for $300 made payable to Red Barn Retreats. Red Barn Retreats will deposit this check and apply it towards your upcoming retreat. Guests at Red Barn Retreats are responsible for any and all damages to property apart from normal wear and tear. If damage to any property is found at the time of check-in, please immediately contact the Red Barn Retreats manager on duty to ensure that you will not be held liable for this damage.

Hold Harmless Agreement. The undersigned forever releases, discharges and covenants to hold harmless Red Barn Retreats and any of its employees or agents or any person, firm or corporation charged or chargeable with responsibility or liability that may arise in connection with the use of the Red Barn Retreats facility (including dumb waiter lift) and grounds.

Indemnity. The undersigned hereby indemnifies the Red Barn Retreats and its agents and employees and any and all persons or entities who may be chargeable with liability against all losses, costs, and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by Red Barn Retreats or its agents, employees or any entities as a result of the use of the Red Barn Retreats facility and grounds.

I hereby certify that I am at least eighteen years of age and have read and agreed to the contract terms and Red Barn Retreats policy which constitute the entire agreement. If I am acting as agent or agents for any other person or entity, then I have the authority to act as such agent. I hereby acknowledge receipt of this contract. I understand this reservation is not confirmed until this form is signed by an authorized agent of the organization and the deposit and any fees via check or credit card are received. If the Red Barn Retreats facility and grounds are not left in the condition in which it was found or materials are missing from the Red Barn Retreats facility and grounds, I agree to pay the cost of cleaning, repairs or material replacement. I understand Red Barn Retreats reserves the right to cancel this reservation.

I agree to check-in with the Red Barn Retreats manager on duty prior to the start of the meeting. I also agree to comply with all checkout procedures.
